WEDNESDAY MARCH 12

The name of the Harrodsburg Sayings has been changed to The Herald.

Thirteen thousand soldiers are to soon return to the States from the Philippines.

The Legislature of Maryland has passed a bill granting women the right to practice law in that state.

Booker T. Washington is preaching that work is the best thing for his race. That is a fine medicine for all races.

There are only five more working days for the present Kentucky Legislature. The redistricting bill has not yet passed the Senate.

In the Senate last Wednesday The Farris anti-local option law was defeated, and in the house the law making gambling a felony was repealed.

From Middleborough comes the news that John Powers, under indictment for complicity in the Gobel murder, has gone to Honduras, where he hopes to be safe from justice. It is also believed that Indiana is soon to lose two of her citizens.

The old Lincoln homestead in Larn county is advertised to be sold for taxes. Several years ago the property was bought by capitalists in the North for the purpose of turning it into a soldiers' home, but the project fell through. Later there was talk of making it a home for old slaves.

Hon. H. H. Rymer, the elegant gentleman and the efficient Representative of the county of Martin, has endorsed himself to the Democrats of Adair county. On every measure that was to Adair's interest, that did not hurt his constituency, he stood by her, and his efforts in our interest will not be forgotten.

Mr. C. A. Lewis, who has been the editor and publisher of the Shelbyville Sentinel for several years, has bought of Mr. W. P. Vail, the Harrodsburg Democrat, will conduct the paper. Mr. Lewis is a newspaper man of State reputation, and will, we feel, make the Democrat up to the high standard it gained under the management of Mr. Watson. Mr. Watson's time will be devoted exclusively to his daily, the Lexington Democrat.

Judge Oba. Patterson, who is about Circuit Judge in the district comprising the counties of Green, Taylor, Marion and Washington will be a candidate for reelection. He was born and reared near the Green and Taylor county line and has been a citizen of Campbellsville since he reached his majority. He is popular in Marion and Washington, and his friends believe that he will be re-elected.

Jack Reynolds, who kidnapped little Annie Clark from Larn county, last year, was arrested at Valparaiso, Indiana, Wednesday of last week. He had the child with him, and at night the officer placed them upon the train and started for Kentucky. While en route, Reynolds, with the child in his arms, leaped through the car window and escaped, but was captured next day. He is the father of the child, but it was born out of wedlock. The mother is a Green county woman and after Reynolds deserted her she married a man named Clark, who adopted the child.

The Farris Anti-Blind Tiger Bill (which strengthens the Local Option law) passed the House by a vote of 65 to 22, and now goes to the Governor for his signature. The bill makes it unlawful for any person to sell, lease, give, promise or to furnish to another in a local option district any liquor, or to have in his possession any liquor, and any person so offending shall be fined not less than $50 nor more than $100 and imprisoned not less than thirty days. The possession of a United States special stamp tax shall be prima facie evidence of guilt. All shipments of liquor, to be paid for C. O. D., into any local option district, shall be deemed sales of such liquor at the place where the money is paid or the goods are delivered, the carrier of same to be jointly liable. Any one knowingly furnishing a house, or room, wagon or conveyance for such unlawful sale shall be fined not less than $400 nor more than $100. The bill reduces the amount of fines so as to give inferior courts jurisdiction of all local option cases.

It has been suggested by some one that the next national Democratic ticket be Hill, of New York, and Bryan, of Nebraska. This would seem a good combination to some—a political adjustment of the Democratic forces and the bringing together of all Democrats. In a recent issue of Mr. Bryan's paper it is apparent that the Nebraska would not accept such a solution, and it is reasonably certain that his friends, the unwavering bismarckists, would not be a party to such a deal. Mr. Bryan stands for principles; Mr. Hill seems to be a candidate for office. Every body wants to find the former on all of the great issues, and no one can swear to the position of the latter. All we know is that Hill occupies this position: He did and he didn't, he didn't and he did. It's a combination that won't work, for while you turn to set one the other will be out of position.

The Williamson Courier, speaking from age and experience, says:—"Kentucky has been a bee hive for a century sending out her swarms to the remotest parts of the earth to build up the waste places and infuse new blood into the population of other States. In Missouri alone there are said to be 800,000 native born Kentuckians. Kentucky can only boast of 55,000 foreign born citizens in all of her two million and more of population. Verily, we have given much of our best blood to the world and have gotten little in return. We are too conservative and unprogressive at heart; hence our boys and girls, the best we have, find homes and make a success of life in other states. Perhaps the awakening of Kentucky is just at hand."

The "Newcomb Bill," providing for two additional Circuits Judges in Jefferson county, passed the Kentucky Senate by a vote of 18 to 12. The bill has already passed the House and is now ready for the Governor's signature, which is expected this week. The Farris "Anti-Cigarette Bill" was defeated in the Senate. A fight is expected in the House when an effort is made to strike from the Revenue Bill the gradual license tax on rectified or blended liquor, and to substitute a tax of fifty cents a barrel.

The authors of bills introduced in the Legislature are running over one another to get their bills considered, less than one week hence. Notwithstanding the short time between this and the next adjournment, bills continue to be introduced with no chance of passage. Those having bills they are anxious to have considered are now content to have them given a position as special orders. There are seven or eight hundred bills in the hands of committees, many of which will never have the honor of being reported.

One of the most useful and efficient members of the present Kentucky Senate is Hon. George T. Farris, of Garrard county. While he has been active in many most excellent measures, had he done nothing except to secure the passage of what is known as the "Blind Tiger" bill, he would be entitled to as hearty thanks of every law-abiding and order-loving citizen of this Commonwealth.

The announcement that the House Republicans on the National Congress were split, last week, is a very insignificant affair. We have seen a few so-called Republican splits, have heard of many, but have never known one too broad to be headed when coming up against their political opponents when an office was at stake. In every split party goes is applied and the thing seems to get stronger. The only real splitting party in the world seems to be the Democratic, we are sorry to say.

Children churches in the Big Windy neighborhood had better be careful or they will carry off a pond or two of st. Pardon in that neighborhood and we commend her to the residents of her adopted city.

Mr. J. W. Coy has accepted the position of town marshal and has been sworn into office. He is a sober, upright man and it is the universal opinion of our citizens that he will carry out the duties of the office.

The town clerk got another dose of snow and freeze last week and refused to tell the time. Would any body cry extravagance! If the fiscal court should decide to give protection to the clock that the country owns!

I will pay ten dollars for the return of my pocket book containing $20. The loss was sustained Monday last week, either in Columbia or while en route to my home at Sparksville.

J. M. YARBERRY.

Crawford, my registered Jersey Bull will be at my father's stable during the present season. Will serve cows at $1.00, cash in advance with the privilege of returning the cow.

W. E. BRADSHAW.

Mr. J. J. Epperson, a prominent farmer of the Montpellier country, thinks that the present prospect for a wheat crop is the sorriest that has been in this "neck of the woods" for sixty years to his personal knowledge.

H. McCLINT.

Hughes & Coffey are having some work done to the roof of the stable. The wind walks out there and light from their store which they are having replaced with banisters. Mr. P. Paducah has changed the way of work and it will be a neat job when completed.

W. L. WALKER.

Mr. Lewis Triplett Dead.

The citizens of this community were greatly surprised last Saturday night when the intelligence of Mr. Lewis Triplett's death was spread over the city.

He had been feeble several days, but his son and daughter, who lived with him, thought he would be in his usual health in a very short time. In fact, he was in the kitchen before he was taken to the premises and asked about certain work that was to be done.

He ate supper and retired for the night, but a short time thereafter complained that it was very difficult for him to breathe and it was noticeable that the end was fast approaching.

A runner was sent for Dr. C. M. Russell, but when the physician arrived all was over. He died very early, his last words being that nothing hurt him.

Mr. Geo. Atkins wants to buy 300 bushels, 2 feet deep and well lined with clay.

The locusts are expected the coming Summer. They are very damaging to crops and young trees.

Mr. S. L. C. Coward, who several years ago was pastor of the Methodist church, this city, has written a book containing four hundred poems on "Bible sanctification from 139 to 1000." The book speaks of it in very complimentary terms.

Frank W. Coffey, who was cashier of the Bank at Elkhart, Ind., became a defaulter for $22,000 and blew his brains out. Mr. J. C. Taylor, a former citizen of Columbia, a son of the late Dr. J. G. Taylor, was President of the institution. The Bank has been closed for settlement.

Mr. V. M. Gowdy, of Campbellsville, a young man well and favorably known in Columbia, will be married Tuesday, March 18, 1902, to Miss Ira Lee Murray. The ceremony will be performed at the Christian church, Campbellsville, and will be witnessed by a large circle of admirer friends.

Mr. T. F. Jeffries, whose sickness was mentioned in this paper some time ago, is still a very feeble man, and there are no indications for immediate recovery. He has been an active useful citizen and his confinement to his room has been a severe trial though he is cheerful, patient and hopeful.

The lady residents of a number of Kentucky towns have organized what is termed "Improvement Association." The principal object of the organization is to improve the public grounds. The ladies of Columbia should organize and when warm and pleasant weather sets in, make a move on the city council.

This office is now supplied with four hundred dollars worth of stationary. It matters not what character of printing you desire, we have the material for the job. We are out for everything in sight, and if "wind and weather" do not prevent, we will get it all for you. The indications are that 1902 will be decidedly the "biggest" year for the News, and to all those who are standing by the paper and patronizing the job department we feel very grateful.

The meeting which has been in progress at the Methodist church for the past two weeks, will probably close this (Wednesday) night. Rev. Harvey has been a drawing card and at each night service the church has been filled to overflowing. It is said that there have been about sixty conversions, twenty having signified their intention to unite with some branch of the Christian Church. The doors of the church will likely be opened to night and all those who desire to unite with some religious body should hand in their names.

A company of State guards was mustered in at Bradfordsville on the 15th with J. E. Willis as Captain. Mr. Willis was chosen Captain without a dissenting voice. The company has been in the volunteer force since the Cuban Spanish war and eminently qualifies him for the position of Captain and it is our judgment that no other man has been made. The formation of this company, we have been informed, is due to the efforts of Hon. H. H. Reynolds, Representative of Marion county.

While in Louisville last week we met Dr. Clarence Grady, of this place, who is up with his studies and who will receive his diploma about the last of May. He is said to be one of the most efficient students in the dental college, and will leave the institution with the highest honors. The doctor has not fully settled on a location, but will probably remain in a neighboring county for a year or two.

Mr. J. W. Coffey's advertisement appears in this issue. He has recently completed a new school, and is now prepared to do any kind of blacksmithing needed in this section. His aim is to do first class work in a few large number of people who have herebefore patronized him in this line. His shop is just back of Dillon & Hupewell's Livery, and you will find him ready to meet the demand.

Last Thursday at 1 o'clock Mr. Wm. Frankum and Miss Mary Bell Bennett were united in marriage at the home of the bride's brother, Mr. Leslie Bennett, in this city. Mr. Frankum is a young man of good reputation and an industrious farmer of the Fairplay section. He is a native of this county and has lived in this county since the News was first published.

The weather has been so chilly, the roads so desperately muddy and the uncertainty of March generally that our representative failed to meet the people of this county at their recent district court, but the clouds will pass, the roads dry and mud disappear ere long.

The Fiscal Court of Adams county will meet next month. It is hoped that the court will favorably consider the proposition to build a bridge across Russell's creek at the mouth of the Adams river and will also make an appropriation to have the face of the city cleaned up.

Mr. Sam Coffey received several letters from friends jumping from a wagon while his team was running. He was coming down Disappointment when the horse started and started a bad fall, but he was not hurt. He will then let them go and jump with the above result.

JORDON PEACOCK,

The Best Station in Kentucky

Will make the season at Gradyville and will serve mares at the low price of ten dollars to insure a mare with foal. Money due when the fact is ascertained or mare traded or removed from the neighborhood. Jordan Peacock has proven himself to be one of the best breeders in Kentucky. His colts have all been sold that are 3-years-old and over at prices from $100 to $2,000. As all the old ones are sold, horse men are now buying them at two-years old at fancy prices. If you want a colt that will bring more money than you ever sold one for, breed your mare to Jordan Peacock and you are sure to get it. Every colt guaranteed to be sound or no pay.

My Fine Jacks.

I will also stand two first-class jacks at $6.00 to insure a mare in foal. Money due when the fact is ascertained or mare traded or removed. All care to prevent accidents but I will not be responsible if any occur. Good grass at 50 cents a week.

W. L. GRADY.

GRADYVILLE, - - - KENTUCKY.

New Style Buggies, Etc.,

We are now receiving a handsome line of new style Buggies, Phaetons and Surreys, durable and easy runners. Our supply of plows, Disc Harrows, Wagons and Buckboards is the largest ever offered to the people of Green and adjoining counties.

FERTILIZERS.

We handle the best brands of fertilizer, and sell at prices that will pay you to travel 100 miles to buy.

SPRING NORMAL

Miss Fannie Smythe, the well-known teacher of this city, will begin a Normal at Montpellier, commencing the first Monday in April. Teachers who will be applicants for County and State Certificates should not fail to attend this school.

Preaching Next Sunday.

W. S. Dodge, Pike school house.
Z. T. Williams, Creelsboro.
W. H. C. Sandgate, Union.
T. Huffaker, Pleasant Hill.
W. P. Gordon, Cave Valley.
T. L. Hulse, Broy.
Buck Burton, Pleasant View.
J. P. Vanhook, Tabor.
J. F. Brach, Prices Creek.

RUSSELL SPRINGS.

An epidemic of measles has swept through this community. Neither old nor young have escaped. Teachers who will be applicants for County and State Certificates should not fail to attend this school.

A protracted meeting, conducted by Rev. Wilson the past week, was well attended, considering the bad weather.

A quarterly meeting was held on Saturday and Sunday, Rev. Hill, of Somerset, presided.

A wagon load of chickens and ducks were shipped by our merchants last week—an opportune time for shipping chickens when you note the above.

Mr. D. Wilson's store is nearing completion. Mr. Wilson and son will start for Cincinnati and Louisville the 20th. They will have an up-to-date stock of goods. We wish them much success after their great loss.

Mr. Marcus Bernard is having annexes with his school at this place.

Dr. Grashy's new house, on Jamestown street, is being completed.

Mr. O. B. Vaughan and wife visited his father this week and to look his three little daughters back with them to their new home near Somerset.

A two months Normal conducted by Miss Jennie Taylor, of Illinois, will begin at this place the 15th. She comes well recommended as a teacher, and teachers who contemplate taking the examination will find her a competent guide toward success.

You can get the News and Courier one year for $1.00.

FOR SALE.—A nice dwelling containing five rooms and all necessary buildings in Russell Springs, Ky. There is a well of fine water upon the premises.

Address—A. P. SIMMONS, Jamestown, Ky.

Mr. W. B. Myers, the present owner of the Columbia Mill Company, will buy all kinds of lumber, including gum and sycamore, what you want. Will pay the highest cash price for it.

Have fourteen nice hogs for sale. Will weigh about 100 pounds. C. H. Jones, Benton, Ky.

It Was The Governor.

Any one who knows the conspicuous part the capital Hotel plays in the political life of the State's capital, Gov. B. C. Egan is not infrequently to be seen in the lobby, and he sometimes sits behind the counter. It being there has led to some rather amusing incidents, one of which he tells himself.

A drummer approached the desk, and in a rather early tone, demanded that his grip be placed on the counter. The Governor smiled quietly and proceeded to comply with the demand. The drummer took out a collar and a pair of cuffs, closed the grip and shouted at the Chief Executive with "Put it back, and mind you handle it carefully."

"Yes, sir," said the Governor, and he smiled quietly again. Some one who had witnessed the incident approached the drummer.

"Do you know who that is who was ordering around there?" was asked.

"No."

"Well, that's Gov. Beckham."

"Gov.?" was the reply, as the knight of the grip proceeded to make down time out of the lobby—Evening Times.

In Memoriam

Little Fannie Bet Butler died on Feb. 21, 1902. She was the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Butler, who live near Columbus. She was ten years and nine months old at her death. She had been complaining several months prior to her death, but no one suspected anything serious would result as she was so pleasant and cheerful. But she began to grow worse and after all was done for her that could be by physician and mother, father and sisters, she succumbed to the death angel, and the innocent soul that only occupied the tenement house of clay for a few brief years, took its flight to the glory land where there will be no more pain and heart aches, to be forever with the Lord. She leaves a heart-broken father and mother and sisters to miss her presence in the home and many sympathizing friends to mourn their loss. She was the idol of the family, always cheerful and happy and brought so much sunshine into the home, but now little Fannie Bet is no more. She has gone, where the angels sing, Where pain and death are felt no more. Where no night, but one eternal day. It is sad indeed to give her up. But the all-wise God knows best. So drink now the bitter cup. And hope some day with her to rest.

Advertised by the Sheriff.

Hodgenville, Ky., Feb. 28.—The old Lincoln homestead, the birthplace of Abraham Lincoln, has been advertised by the Sheriff of this county to be sold at public auction to the highest bidder to satisfy a tax debt due the State against the property, amounting to a small sum. The homestead belongs to eastern capitalists, who purchased it years ago for the purpose of converting it into a public park.

The farm has several times received consideration at the hands of Congress looking to the establishment of a home for old soldiers and widows of veterans of the civil war, and quite recently a project was started for the building of a home for old and disabled ex-slaves.

The extent of damage done to fruit in Kentucky by the severe winter will not be known until the bloom is on the trees. Mr. Samuel P. Graham, assistant forecast official of the Lexington Weather Bureau, is authority for this statement. "The freezes of December," said Mr. Graham to a Courier-Journal reporter, "was killing, but just how much so cannot be determined. The recent cold, however, did more damage, I believe, in breaking down limbs than the freeze. Not only were fruit trees injured by the cold, but shade trees and forest trees, and the damage extended over practically all of Kentucky. There were a few northern counties that escaped. Yesterday I sent inquiry blanks to farmers in every county in the State asking for reports on the estimated damage done by frost to trees of all kinds. The replies will form the basis of my report."

For Rent.—One story house in Columbia, Ky., is for rent. Address: Wm. H. B. Co., Care of City.

Mr. W. R. Myers, the present owner of the Columbia Mill Company, will buy all kinds of lumber, including gum and spruce, white and red. Will pay the highest cash price.

Young fruit trees should be mulched with rotten straw before hot weather comes. If you have trees planted spend a day or two hauling straw and you will not regret it.
